THE RIVERSIDE

ESTEAD ASSOCIATION!

— of —

ow prepared to receive subscriptions [illegible] their Stock [illegible] cation for ONE HUNDRED SHARES was made [illegible] the books were opened and a large number of [illegible] have been taken [illegible] following extract from the Oregonian and Bulletin [illegible] convey a good idea of the plans and workings of [illegible] sociation etc etc

association of which organization we gave [illegible] count a few days since is now ready to discharge [illegible] As it is with one exception the [illegible] and Homestead Association of the pioneer or [illegible] of that kind in this city may be [illegible] enough to state what are its purposes and [illegible] manner in which it is proposed to conduct its [illegible] tions The purposes of these Homestead [illegible] ciations are not at all speculative in the [illegible] sense of the word They are dependent [illegible] profits of their investment upon the natural advance in the value of their lands consequent upon the co-operation of many individuals [illegible] shareholders—and the advance on values of all surrounding lands by reason of the expansion of [illegible] and demand for homesteads [illegible] near the city The Riverside Homestead Association has a fraction over one hundred and [illegible] acres of land situated just south of [illegible] klyn on the East side of the river the near [illegible] boundary line being about one mile from the [illegible] landing at East Portland The tract lies [illegible] strip along the Willamette river half a mile [illegible] ngth and another strip along the Oregon and [illegible] fornia railroad half a mile in length the two [illegible] being connected near the middle by two [illegible] of blocks with a cut between them) the [illegible] forming a figure not unlike the letter H [illegible] ow divided into 74 blocks 200 feet square (with [illegible] s running at right angles) and 80 fractional [illegible] ts along the river front The shares number [illegible] 00, worth $60 per share It will be seen that [illegible] re thus represents nearly a lot with an undivided interest in the 80 fractional lots The 80 fractional shares are to be sold [illegible] at the proper time the benefit of the Association shareholders [illegible] the proceeds [illegible] to the [illegible] ber of shares held When all shares are [illegible] and the Association shall determine [illegible] to do it the choice of lots and blocks [illegible] be put up at auction to the highest [illegible] or the proceeds of such sale after deducting [illegible] original price of shares or lots to be divided [illegible] lly among the whole number of shares. If a person wants a particular lot or block [illegible] is willing to pay $100 [illegible] $800 premium (more [illegible] as the case may be) he pays it and takes [illegible] lot or block as his individual property the [illegible] mium being divided among the whole number [illegible] shareholders It will be seen therefore, that [illegible] thing is co-operative and all interests mu[illegible]

No man can make a dollar out of it without also making a dollar for every other equal [illegible] holder There is no chance for loss unless [illegible] property by some chance should depreciate [illegible] below the first actual cost Whether this is [illegible] to happen in the case of this particular [illegible] of land must be judged by each for himself, [illegible] considering the steady and unprecedented advance on real estate in this city and neighborhood, and at East Portland and vicinity for the [illegible] year or two, it seems hardly possible for [illegible] to go back

[illegible] the Riverside Association all proper precaution seems to have been taken to guard against [illegible] opolies of shares No person is allowed to [illegible] more than the number of shares representing [illegible] blocks or twenty four lots and votes [illegible] the operations of the association are [illegible] ected in the same manner The buyers of [illegible] may pay down $60 per share, which will [illegible] them from all assessments or they may [illegible] $15 quarterly with an assessment of $3 per [illegible] payable with the first installment, being [illegible] in this latter case to another (and only one [illegible]) assessment of $3 per share. Upon the [illegible] ment of the shares in full with the assessments [illegible] bove, the holder is entitled to his certificate [illegible] his proportion of all the profits accrued from [illegible] ources. No officer of the Association receives [illegible] pay for services except the Secretary who [illegible] $25 per month so it will be seen that the [illegible] must be light

[illegible] al part of the tract lying along the river is [illegible] gh plateau nearly level about 60 to 90 feet [illegible] the water There is no part of the front [illegible] of blocks but commands a splendid view of [illegible] land and the river for miles up and down [illegible] That part of the tract lying along the [illegible] road is, every foot of it of the richest loam [illegible] and adapted to gardening purposes A beautiful little stream of pure water runs through [illegible] the entire length of this wing of the tract, [illegible] ding the means of irrigation and power sufficient to supply pure water to every part of the [illegible] tract There is not a single lot or fractional [illegible] in the entire tract Under all these advantages, it would seem impossible that there should [illegible] any chance of loss to shareholders Within a [illegible] each shareholder if he chooses may get a [illegible] title to as many lots as his shares may [illegible] resent, or he may continue his interest, under [illegible] with the Association while the organization may exist —Oregonian.

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

[illegible] have been led to make these remarks from the [illegible] that the subject of making homesteads [illegible] of this city and East Portland, is being thoroughly [illegible] here among [illegible] acres and one homestead—the Riverside [illegible] of East Portland—has already [illegible] established The site selected is a tract of land lying [illegible] of the ferry landing It is [illegible] of which, a half mile [illegible] ngth [illegible] which elevated [illegible] a trifle above the [illegible] but is still [illegible] or fifty feet above the river [illegible] view of Portland East Portland the shipping, and [illegible] The land is very [illegible] Willamette river [illegible] with light [illegible] timber [illegible] land just [illegible] enough for two rows of blocks [illegible] H (which has already been described) that a beautiful little [illegible] which [illegible] the water [illegible] through its whole [illegible] a hydraulic ram the [illegible] clear as crystal [illegible] —Bulletin.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO OCT 31

Metz Starved Out

NEW YORK Oct 29 —The Herald's cable special dated Saarbrucken Oct 27 says the surrender of Bazaine took nobody by surprise It was certain ever since the departure of Boyer For several preceding days the French pickets were drawn and firing entirely ceased The Germans advanced close to the French lines and talked in a friendly manner with the enemy and were actually giving the poor emaciated fellows a portion of their rations

The Times special from Brussels says Complaints are made that Bazaine did not mass his men at an early day of the siege and cut his way out at any cost but the Marshal is very popular with his army Reports prevail that the army will be sent to Germany for a few days This creates the impression that peace is expected and intended to be accomplished through the agency of Marshal Bazaine, and perhaps an imperial regency Possession of the forts will be given to day Marshal Leboeuf is a prisoner He refuses to accept parole Bazaine is going to Wilhelmshohe with Changarnier after a visit to Versailles From the condition of his army it is certain Bazaine could not have held out three days longer

King William to be Emperor of Germany

LONDON Oct 29 —The States of Germany North and South have agreed to name King William Emperor

The spoils of capitulation at Metz include three thousand guns, forty millions of the French war funds and twenty millions of the French civil Government department funds

Honors for Royalty

BERLIN, Oct. 30 —The King telegraphs as follows to the Queen

VERSAILLES, Oct 2 —The defeat of two hostile armies which recently marched against us warrant me in conferring on our two commanders Fritz and Frederick Charles the badge of Field Marshal, the first instance of such an appointment in our family history

(Signed) WILLIAM

No Disturbances in Paris

BRUSSELS, Oct 29 —The Independence Belge denies directly the Prussian report of fighting in Paris on the 27th It has the highest evidence of perfect unity in population

Prussian Repulse

LONDON, Oct 29 —A Prussian force of twelve hundred tried to cut the Amiens and Rouen railway at Formiers, and were repulsed after a severe fight with Mobiles and National Guardes They retreated on Songeons The Mobiles took one gun The Prussians while retreating fired the village with torches and petroleum

Paris Summoned

BERLIN Oct 29 —The Kreuz Zeitung says a summons to surrender has been forwarded to the military authorities inside of Paris fortifications The bombardment of the city will begin early next week

The Prussian army heretofore before Metz has gone to the siege of Paris

Gen Trochu has written to King William in behalf of Gen Ducroe

The Feeling at Paris

PARIS, Oct 30 —As to Bazaine's capitulation a majority of the people deem it a political move and express intense indignation

The army of Loire, which has been largely increased, was ready to attack the Prussian forces and much was expected from it toward deliverance of Paris The surrender of Metz checks its efforts

The Constitutionnel makes a strong appeal to Gambetta as a person capable of meeting the present emergency It asks him to consent to an armistice and order an immediate election for the Constituent Assembly

Several dispatches have been received announcing French successes in different parts of the country

Dispatches via London

LONDON Oct 30 —The French troops surrendered at Metz have been disarmed by the Prussians who refuse to parole the officers because of General Ducroe's evasion of his obligations

The Gazette [illegible] publishes a report that in the vicinity of Paris a band of Francs Tireurs nearly captured the King of Prussia who only escaped by precipitate flight The story is considered an invention

It is estimated that the Germans have taken up to the present time 320 000 French prisoners

VERSAILLES Oct 29 via London —The French volunteers calling themselves the Wild Boars of Ardennes are tearing up the railroad track and otherwise interfering with the German communications They have thrown off the track three trains filled with troops near Tauners Many soldiers were killed and injured

Some Wurtemburg troops had an encounter on Thursday with a body of the National and Mobile Guards at Montereau The latter were defeated Loss of the Germans slight

Bonapartists Despair

BRUSSELS, Oct. 29 —The Times special says the capitulation of Metz has thrown the Bonapartists into despair This city is the grand center of their schemes

TERRIFYING THE TURCOS —The following story is from a forwarded letter of a German soldier to his parents at Stuttgard "I must tell you a nice joke we had We had been patrolling four of us the whole day in the neighborhood of Bar le Duc and were wet to the skin The rain was just commencing with new vigor when we saw a farm house in the distance where we resolved to stand up The house was deserted by the inhabitants who had carried away with them all the cattle [illegible] We, therefore took some bread out of our knapsacks which with a jug of fresh water we considered a splendid meal All at once we heard a great noise and clashing of arms and about one hundred yards from the house we saw some twelve Turcos approaching What was to be done? [illegible] No [illegible] away Neither. We were resolved to defend ourselves to the last Suddenly I caught sight of an old bass-fiddle which was standing in a corner I called to my comrades to fire at the Turcos and then attack them with the bayonet I myself took hold of the big fiddle and began to play with might and main making the most frightful noise The moment the Turcos heard it they turned threw away their rifles and began to run My comrades after them and they took the whole lot of them prisoners The black devils went down on their knees pointing with all signs of horror to the house in which the big fiddle was still being played I only understood from their talking the word [illegible] which showed that the fellows had taken the noise of the fiddle for the roar of a lion We bound them together and brought them to Bar le Duc and often afterwards we laughed at this capital joke."

THE WAR AND KID GLOVES —Few have any conception of the immense trade in this city in kid gloves The trade amounts to a very large sum the wholesale and retail together probably to $ [illegible] 000 000 annually Our modern ladies like the fair Juliet, all wear kid gloves and no Romeo of the present day considers his toilet complete without them While these fashionable [illegible] for the hand have for a long time commanded high prices [illegible] consideration of no small importance [illegible] kid gloves are largely manufactured in the eastern part of France in Metz Nancy and Thionville now occupied by the Prussians With the advance and occupancy of this portion of the country by King William's forces the manufacture ceased and the result has been a cessation both in the production and importation The prices of this class of goods therefore have advanced thirty per cent and if the war continues all is certain to be still higher —*N. HOW A WOMAN DIED AT BAZEILLES —The following extract from the war correspondent of the [illegible] gives one of the most striking pictures of the horrors of the present war which we have seen

"I had but just put [illegible] when a new horror encountered me From a house behind me came the report of two shots I turned and saw a Bavarian [illegible] in the exercise of his duty fall convulsively to the ground The wounded man [illegible] rolls with him to the dust [illegible] the shots five or six Bavarians force a way in the door breaks under the blows of their butt ends But the soldiers stand as if stunned On the threshold appears armed with a double-barreled gun a tall woman she may be fifty years old dishevelled gray hairs fall around her fine noble face As she regards the soldiers her features are distorted she laughs wildly [illegible] 'It is fearful thing! You are a beast' calls [illegible] a Doctor hurrying by Her laugh [illegible] a torrent of tears gush down her face she exclaims softly but in tones of heartrending pathos 'No I am a wife I am a mother You have slain my husband you have slain my two children kill me also I will thank you If you will not kill me then it is I who will kill you' With the last words the [illegible] She again raises the gun [illegible] They [illegible] She has lost her husband and her two sons That makes an impression on the soldiers silently they turn away I turn back with the doctor We stoop over the poor woman Her wounds are fatal The woman regards us wildly I take her hand and involuntarily my lips utter [illegible] The words seem to have pleased her she feels they come from the heart Her eyes grow dim and as she clasped my hand firmly her bosom heaves a last sigh"

BISMARCK'S ACCOUNT OF THE NEGOTIATIONS WITH FAVRE

The following circular has been addressed by Count Bismarck to the North German Embassies and Legations

FERRIERES Sept 27 1870

The report of M Jules Favre presented to [illegible] our interview on the 21st of September causes me to address to your Excellency a communication which will give you a correct idea of what has passed between us Upon the whole I cannot but admit that M Favre has endeavored to convey an [illegible] account of the transaction If he has not fully succeeded in so doing his error is sufficiently explained by the length of our interviews and the circumstances under which they were held With regard to the drift of his entire argument I ought however to observe that the primary topic of our conversations was not the conclusion of peace but of an armistice which was to precede it As to our terms of peace, I expressly declared to M Favre that I should state the frontier we should claim only after the principle of cession of territory had been publicly conceded by France In connection with this the formation of a new Moselle district with the arrondissements of Saarbruck, Chateau Salins Sarreguemines Metz and Thionville was alluded to by me as an arrangement included in our intentions, but I have not renounced the right of making such further demands as may be calculated to indemnify us for the sacrifices which a continuance of the war will entail M Favre called Strasbourg the key of the house leaving it doubtful which house he meant. I replied that Strasbourg was the key of the house and we therefore objected to leave it in foreign hands Our first conversation in Chateau Haute Maison, near Montry was confined to an abstract inquiry into the general characteristics of the past and present ages M Favre's oddly pertinent remark on this occasion was that they would pay any sum tout l'argent que vous [illegible] but declined any cession of territory Upon my declaring such cession to be indispensable he said in that case it would be useless to open negotiations for peace and he argued on the supposition that to cede territory would humiliate—nay, dishonor France I failed to convince him that terms such as France had obtained from Italy and demanded from Germany, without even the excuse of previous war—terms which France would have imposed upon us had we been defeated and in which nearly every war had resulted down to the latest times—could have nothing dishonoring in themselves to a country vanquished after a gallant struggle, and that the honor of France was of no other quality or nature than the honor of all other countries M Favre likewise declined to see that, as a question of honor the restoration of Strasburg would be on a par with the former restitution of Landau and Saar Louis and the honor of France was just as little bound up with the unlawful conquests of Louis XIV as it had been with those of the first Republic or the first Empire Our conversations took a more practical turn at Ferrieres, where they referred to the question of an armistice Such having been the exclusive theme at that place disapproves the assertion that I refused an armistice under any considerations, M Favre doing me on this and other occasions the honor of making me express my own personal notions—for instance [illegible] un armistice? je n'en veux a aucun prix and such like compels me to rectify his allegations I never in conversations of this kind speak of myself as according or denying anything but only communicate the intentions and demands of the government whose business I have to transact In this conversation we both were of the opinion that an armistice might be concluded to give the French nation an opportunity of electing a Representative Assembly which alone would be in a position so far to strengthen the title to power possessed by the existing government as to render it possible for us to conclude with them a peace valid in accordance with the rules of international law I remarked that, to an army in the midst of a victorious career an armistice is always injurious that, in the present instance, more particularly it would give France time to reorganize her troops and to make defensive preparations and that therefore I could not accord an armistice without some military equivalent being conceded to us I mentioned as such the surrender of the fortresses obstructing our communications with Germany because if by an armistice we were to be detained in France longer than was absolutely necessary, we must insist upon increased means of bringing up provisions I referred to Strasburg Toul, and some less important places Concerning Strasburg I urged that the crowning of the glacis having been accomplished, the conquest of that place might be shortly anticipated, and that we therefore thought ourselves entitled to demand that that garrison should surrender as prisoners of war The garrisons of the other places would be allowed free retreat Paris was another difficulty Having completely enclosed this city, we could permit it renewed intercourse with the rest of France only if the importations of fresh provisions thereby rendered possible did not weaken our own military position and retard the date at which we might hope to starve out the place Having consulted the military authorities and taken His Majesty's commands I therefore ultimately submitted the following alternatives Either the fortified place of Paris is to be given into our hands by the surrender of a [illegible] portion of the works in which case we are ready to allow Paris renewed intercourse with the country and to permit the provisioning of the town or the fortified place of Paris not being given into our hands we shall keep it invested during the armistice which latter would otherwise result in Paris being able to oppose us at its expiry reinforced by fresh supplies and strengthened by new defenses M Favre peremptorily declined handing over any portion of the works of Paris and also refused the surrender of the Strasbourg garrison as prisoners of war He however promised to take the opinion of his colleagues at Paris respecting the other alternative under which the military status quo before Paris was to be maintained Accordingly the programme which M Favre brought to Paris as the result of our conversations and which was rejected there contained nothing as to the future conditions of peace It only included an armistice of from a fortnight to three weeks to be granted on the following conditions in order to [illegible] the election of a National Assembly [illegible] Firstly in and before Paris the [illegible] secondly in and before Metz the continuance of hostilities within a circle hereafter to be more accurately defined thirdly the surrender of Strasburg with its garrison and the evacuation of Toul and Bitche their garrisons being allowed free retreat I believe our [illegible] was a very acceptable offer will be shared by all neutral Cabinets If the French Government has not availed itself of this opportunity for having a National Assembly [illegible] all parts of France those occupied by us not excepted this indicates a resolve to prolong the difficulties which prevent the conclusion of a valid peace and to ignore the voice of the French people From all we see here [illegible] likewise upon the rulers of Paris that free and unbiassed general elections will yield a majority in favor of peace I request your Excellency to communicate this circular to the Government to which you are accredited

TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 1, 1870

A Consistent Governor

Mr. [illegible] vetoed the west side subsidy bill [illegible] on the ground that the bill was in conflict with the portion of the Constitution which prohibits municipalities from lending their credit to a corporation for any purpose. Now if the Governor's [illegible] subject is so masterly and unanswerable as his party organs say, how will they justify his action in signing the subsidy bill for the locks at Wallamet Falls? That measure is in open violation of the Constitution in two particulars. First it contemplates a seizure of the 500,000 acres of school lands which the Constitution expressly declares shall be kept as a separate and irreducible school fund. Second it creates a debt of $200,000 for the benefit of a corporation though the Constitution expressly limits the State indebtedness to $50,000 unless to suppress insurrection or repel invasion.

If therefore the Governor's logic in his veto of the west side subsidy bill is so convincing what are we to say of his conduct in affixing his official signature to the bill which both contemplates a robbery of the school fund and creates a State debt far in excess of the constitutional limitation? He is indeed a remarkable logician who could find insuperable constitutional objections to the west side subsidy bill but could see none whatever to the Wallamet Falls lock scheme. But then the Governor and a number of his closest friends have a personal and political interest in the latter enterprise and have none whatever in the west side railroad. And this makes ever so much difference in his Excellency's constitutional views.

Thus by the record which Gov. Grover has made, it appears that he considers any measure which will bring profit to the clique which controls him to be entirely constitutional, and that no other measure can be so. He has no constitutional scruples about approving any scheme which will put money into the pockets of the political ring which now controls the State, but when the people of Portland desire the adoption of a measure which would insure the completion of the west side road and contribute largely to the prosperity of the city and of all the counties on the west side of the Wallamet river the Governor thinks he sees in the proposition a pitfall for his party and immediately he begins to quote the Constitution with pathetic vigor. He hastens to the defense of the imperilled Constitution and attempts to compound with the sin of robbing the school fund and creating a huge State debt by condemning, in the name of the Constitution an enterprise which the whole people of the west side, from Eugene City to Portland are anxious should succeed.

The west side railroad has been a source of much anxiety and controversy during the last two years. Had Gov. Grover affixed his signature to this bill, the success of the road would have been assured. But he vetoed it in the interest or at the command of the same cabal of politicians and speculators at whose instance and in whose behalf he signed the great school fund swindle and the construction of the west side road it now appears is, to say the least problematical. West side people will place the responsibility where it belongs.

There is a beautiful state of things in New York. The great "Erie Ring" headed by Gould and Fisk, it is said have ordered all employees on the Erie Railway to vote for Hoffman and the Democratic Assembly nominees on pain of instant dismissal. A dispatch of October 25th says that "taxation in the city has been doubled in ten years and is now four times greater than in the remainder of the State. Reports are no longer made by the Comptroller's office and citizens can get no idea of the city's financial condition. The Comptroller has a cart-load of blank bonds at his elbow any amount of which he can put on the market or issue to his confederates secretly at any rate of interest or none at all, as he sees fit. No one outside the ring can tell whether the city is solvent or bankrupt, nor can any one hope to know until the scoundrel rulers are put down. This is the system that Tammany proposes to maintain by hired repeaters and ballot box stuffers and that Tammany proposes to fight for if it is interfered with. It is for this that the authorities of the United States who are resolved that an honest election is to be held are to be resisted by force and violence. If there is to be a collision of arms to decide whether the Tammany system is to stand or fall the collision cannot come too soon.

San Francisco

The completion of the Federal census for San Francisco affords an opportunity to take a glance at the growth and present condition of the metropolis of the Pacific slope.

The population of the city is shown to be 150,361. Of this number 12,017 are Chinese. The number of colored persons in the city is below 1,000. In the whole population there is an excess of 14,217 males over females. The real and personal property of the city is valued by its owners at $260,056,518.

A comparison of these figures with those of the last census will show what prodigious strides the city of San Francisco has made in the space of ten years. The census for 1860 reported the population of the city at 56,802. The gain therefore in population in ten years is nearly [illegible] per cent, a rate which far exceeds that of any other large city except Chicago. In the increase of values of property the progress of San Francisco has been still more rapid. In 1860 the value of all property was stated at $36,580,417. The gain in the decade has been over 600 per cent, a rate that is believed to be without a parallel in a town of large size. It appears from this showing that the era of greatest gold production in California was not by any means the era of greatest prosperity for San Francisco. The results shown by the census are certainly very flattering for the city and while they show how much it has already achieved they are also presageful of its coming greatness.

VOTE OF CINCINNATI.—The vote of Cincinnati including Hamilton county in the late election, was as follows:

Sherwood, Republican	1[illegible]
Halsey, Democrat	14,[illegible]
Republican majority	[illegible]
Last year for Governor the vote stood:
Pendleton, Democrat	19,[illegible]
Hayes, Republican	[illegible]
Democratic majority	1,3[illegible]
In 1869 for Secretary of State the vote stood as follows:
Sherwood, Republican	[illegible]
Hubbard, Democrat	21,018
Republican majority	1,835

The Republican gain since last fall is 3,[illegible]. If the vote had been as full [illegible] the majority would have been [illegible].

General Lee

The New York [illegible] contains [illegible] statements [illegible] the conduct of the man who was the military head of the rebellion, that we give a couple of paragraphs from it:

They (the Southern people) will mourn his death with a sorrow as deep, unfeigned, and universal as has ever been called out by the loss of any popular favorite. With this sorrow we do not wish to meddle [illegible] Had Lee while Virginia's decision was trembling in the balance acted as Thomas did, it is not unreasonable to believe that the old State would have remained true to the Union. As it was she was only carried out by a trick and against the wish of a majority of her people. With Lee's sword thrown in the balance at the critical hour of Virginia's destiny the war might have been avoided or confined to the extreme southern States, would have been far shorter and less costly of life.

But Lee was weak and irresolute. An enormous family and political pressure overbore his own judgment and led him to desert the government to which he owed everything although he undoubtedly "wept tears of blood" as he wrote his fatal letter of resignation. While therefore we cheerfully accord to him all that is due to him let us not insult the memory of that brave and noble Virginian Geo. H. Thomas by ignoring Lee's weakness—to call it by no harsher name—at an hour when weakness was equivalent to premeditated treachery in its results.

The Liberal Party in Germany

The New York Times comments upon the efforts being made to unite all parties in Germany [illegible] Chancellor Lowe's declaration that an united nation [illegible] and that Germany with arms in her hands and flushed with victory will not yield her liberties to King or Emperor. The writer says:

No King of Prussia, for seventy years has been a despot. Every one has governed by law, even were it an opprobrious law. Least of all is the present King a despot. During the past three years two great deliberative bodies have taken part in the government of Germany, the Federal Parliament for North Germany and the Prussian Chambers. The former has been chosen on the basis of a suffrage more liberal than that of Great Britain. It is true that it has only begun its political career, but a popular Parliament is the first instrument for popular liberties and we shall yet see its beneficial results in the development of free institutions in Germany.

The chief Democratic organ of the Northwest the Chicago Times frankly gives its opinion of "the Dutch" in this elegant style:

"The Dutch of this country have proven a most stupendous fraud. The records of the War Department at Washington show one continuous line of shelved Dutch Generals during our late war. Chancellorsville was repeated on a smaller scale wherever Dutch battalions were placed in battle array. They vote just as they fought, on the side offering the most lager beer and the most money. It is useless for the Democracy to pander to the Dutch vote. It is a curse to any party."

On the Constitutional vote in Pennsylvania according to official returns, the Republicans carry the State by 4,203 majority. This is about the same as last year. There was no State ticket in the field in the late election.

THE TERRITORIES

A. B. Elmer, assayer at Walla Walla, is assaying dust to the amount of $20,000 monthly.

The taxable property in Lewis and Clark county Montana, foots about $3,000,000. It is the richest county in the Territory.

A man named Edward Cahill was killed near Idaho City a few days since. He was murdered by a gang of Chinamen with whom he had a difficulty about a water right.

An Idaho paper says that not long since a Montanian truthfully said at Loon Creek to an Idahoan: "We can bring our worst murdering cases here and clear the criminal, but, sir, in Montana we would have hung fifty of your assassins and have saved the people from taxation."

From the Owyhee Avalanche: The winze in the sixth level of the Golden Chariot, south of the shaft, is now down about thirty feet. Large quantities of rich ore continue to be taken from the stopes of the fifth level. Sixty cents per foot is now being paid for drilling. The new hoisting works were at Elko ten days ago and are probably half way here by this time. Chariot stock was selling in San Francisco last Saturday at $44 per share.

A Walla Walla paper says: Alvinza Hayward the California capitalist has intimated his willingness to build a railroad from Walla Walla to some point on the Columbia river provided the sum of $100,000 is subscribed by our citizens in aid of the enterprise. We presume that Mr. H. desires to build the road in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress passed some years since granting the right of way and conceding certain privileges. Under the law the county is authorized to subscribe $[illegible]00,000 and if Mr. H. really means business there need be no difficulty in raising the amount named or any other sum necessary to secure the railroad.

The Law to be Enforced

A telegram from New York dated October 26th gives the following interesting information relative to preparations for enforcing an honest election in that city under the law of Congress:

Attorney General Akerman now in this city is instructed to see that all the rights of the citizens are respected and that the authority of the United States Government is maintained in its integrity. He was in consultation with United States Senator Conkling yesterday and the Senator subsequently remarked that the determination was to enforce the act of Congress at all hazards. No doubtful or questionable power will be assumed by the officers, but they will enforce such processes and provisions as they will be sustained in executing. The preparations for the purpose are being perfected every day and there will be no lack of authority to back up the officers. The Eighth U. S. Infantry will arrive in the harbor to-night from Charleston. This regiment is about 600 strong and will be reinforced by 400 recruits who await its arrival. It will find quarters on one of the islands in the East River and when the emergency is over will proceed to the Canadian frontier and go into winter quarters. Other forces of considerable strength will find it convenient to concentrate in the vicinity of New York during the next two weeks; and though few people will probably ever see them the fact that they are on hand will be comforting to one party and exercise a wholesome restraint on the evil doers of the other. The United States officers charged with the duty of executing the law of Congress for the preservation of the purity of the ballot [illegible] to the President last evening [illegible] Robertson left this city on Monday. The naval forces at Brooklyn and upon the waters of New York harbor will be held in readiness to sustain the officers in executing and enforcing the law. There is no backwardness anywhere.

There is a curious interest connected with Wilhelmshohe where Napoleon is confined, in the fact that the famous chateau, waterworks and park (probably the finest park in the world) were constructed with the money paid at the time of our Revolutionary War by the English King George III., for some 1[illegible],000 troops furnished by the Elector of Hesse Cassel for service against the American colonies of England. So great was the cost of the chateau and park that the accounts were destroyed to prevent its becoming known. The estate is now the property of the King of Prussia whose royal predecessor on the Prussian throne (Frederick II.) was friendly to us during our war for independence, and whose sovereignty now is welcomed by every man in Cassel.

POLITICAL NOTES

The New York [illegible] presents a statement [illegible] the National Government with its army and navy to support, with its Post Offices, its gigantic schemes of internal improvement, its custom service, its Indian appropriations, its diplomatic expenses, costs each citizen just two dollars a year. The city government with none of these extra burdens, costs each citizen twenty-eight dollars a year!

The Democrats of Massachusetts in their platform declare that the [illegible] considerations to be treated summarily as a mere party question, but that they [illegible] the people of the State to remove at once and forever all property or other qualification, constitutional or statutory upon its exercise by every man who is a citizen. This is a broad and sweeping affirmation of the Fifteenth amendment.

General Brown the Democratic candidate for Governor of Tennessee has recently taken the trouble to explain after a fashion what "sovereign States" mean in the platform of his party. He asserts that the words have no practical reference to any purpose of secession and that States are sovereign save to the extent that they have invested the Federal Union with certain clearly defined powers, which is as much as to say they are sovereign only they are not. If the words meant nothing, then the Democrats of Tennessee were peculiarly unfortunate in their selection of terms.

The largest number of colored voters in any Northern State is in Pennsylvania where they number over 10,000. In New York there are 8,000; in Ohio [illegible],000; in New Jersey 5,500; in Illinois 4,000; Indiana, 3,500; Connecticut, 2,400. In the border States they are more numerous, thus in the little State of Delaware there are 4,000 colored voters; in Maryland 34,[illegible]; in Missouri, 15,500; in West Virginia 4,[illegible]. But their great strength is in the Gulf States where in several they outnumber the whites. The total colored vote in the United States is 800,000, of whom not to exceed 50,000 are north of the Mason and Dixon line.

EGGS

ONE OF HENRY WARD BEECHER'S [illegible] STORIES

I never come upon a nest of eggs secreted by the hen most conscientiously and unknown to the most searching of housekeepers without a sense of boyish delight, which would bring down on me reproving looks and grave admonition from all who have an awful sense of the proper dignity of ministers. But I have no doubt soda and acids come together with the very best resolutions. They are determined to restrain themselves, and not foam over. Yet the first drop of water sets them off and they make bubbles and throw them in each other's faces at a furious rate, in spite of all the efforts at self-government. Now what is to be done about it? Were they not made so? And are not some people made so as to effervesce easily? Why they were made so is a question that should be addressed to another quarter.

Well I was saying that the discovery of hidden eggs was always an excitement and there have been times when the excitement was prolonged and extreme. It chanced in this wise, and in the goodly State of Indiana.

No more neat, careful, exact and scrupulous housekeeper ever was seen in the Hoosier State than our fair landlady who had us in charge during the absence of our proper head queen who sought health on our seaboard. An old fashioned barn there was, huge in the middle with a variety of sheds leaning against it [illegible] projecting on every side as if the barn had settled a family of little barns around it. It was a family barn beloved by hens and boys for in its roomy interior and in the passages, nooks and corners all sorts of frolics might be carried on while an occasional peek at the cracks would keep them informed when the old man was coming.

But hens who have a secretive tendency, a modesty of the nest, find their paradise in such a voluminous barn. Here they may lay in silence and proclaim it in vociferous cackles bringing down the whole barnyard in chorus and making echoes in the neighboring hen yards and yet the searcher finds nothing.

"That pesky hen, she lays every day and yet we are none the better for her eggs. If Harvey was half as smart as his father, I know that I could find that nest."

And again and again came the exultant cackle, and again and again we were without custards!

And so one mellow Autumn day we wandered through the garden and strolled into the barn. It was not so full but that it had the sense of great space. It was festooned with cobwebs and had all the tribes of spiders that hide in half lights. We climbed the beams, we jumped down from far up on the hay and finally after sundry amusements lay down by the side where the shrunk boards gave us an inspection crack from which we swept the neighborhood—saw and were unseen. Soon we heard the least possible sound of a foot on the hay. Turning our head we beheld the productive but unprofitable hen stealing toward her secret. It was the one time too often. We knew as much as she did.

How rapacious are all conquerors. There was the roundest nest, well sunk in a corner, full, brimful of eggs, 13 besides one for a nest egg. As oriental kings despoil a captured city and its people pull down their houses and [illegible] disown its beauty, so we found the nest glowing white, marble, and left it like hay.

[illegible] Is there not a fate that follows the most [illegible] and unwanted violence?

We put the eggs safely in our coat tail pockets and walked cautiously. It recalled a piece of disreputable carelessness on our father's part who once sat down on a dozen eggs and went up as if every egg was a bomb and every bomb in explosion. But then he was a notoriously absent-minded man. His very example was our safety. And yet we dwelt with some inward mirth as we walked to the house on the ludicrous figure that our father cut. Dinner was spread as we came in. Some question came up which diverted our thought from the discovery of the nest; indeed we forgot that we had eggs about us and drew to the table and sat down with an alacrity which was only equalled by the spring with which we got up.

"Gracious!"

"Why what's the matter?"

"Matter enough!"

"Are you sick? Do tell."

I drew my hand from my pocket streaming with liquid chicken never to be born, and the disgusting secret was out! The woman was a saint. My pockets were duly cleansed without one cutting word. I can imagine the process but I never like to dwell upon it. [illegible] to the same person. But never since then [illegible] from that day to this, we do not remember to have taken an egg from a nest.

1. When I see a man who allows himself to be puffed up and flattered, I know that his time will come when he will sit down on his eggs.

2. When I see men who are rolling right and left [illegible] their pockets with [illegible] You will sit down on the eggs yet.

3. When I see young men think that they are outwitting their fellows and exulting at the [illegible] which their shrewdness has achieved, [illegible] fill your pockets. By and by you will sit down on those eggs.

An immense demand for breadstuffs is anticipated from both France and Prussia immediately after the close of the war, and American [illegible] naturally look for a share in the profit. They [illegible] the preparation in Russia to meet the demand [illegible] A letter from Odessa bearing date Sept. 8 says that the quantity of cereals stored at that port and awaiting the close of hostilities is great beyond all precedent. British capital is also said to have embarked extensively in the speculation. It is not unreasonable to hope that American interests may be furthered by the prospective demand for breadstuffs but the facts we mention clearly indicate the danger of overestimating this advantage.

TO THE STOCKHOLDERS

THE REGULAR QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE Stockholders of the Puget Sound Homestead Association will be held next Wednesday evening at [illegible] o'clock at the office of Russell & Ferry. Members are earnestly requested to be present.

The lands of the Association are rapidly appreciating in value. The surveys of the Northern Pacific Railroad are rapidly progressing and will be vigorously pushed all winter. It is almost certain that the waters of the River and the Sound will be united by railroad the coming [illegible]. The preliminary line already surveyed traverses [illegible] Newaukum [illegible] Newaukum which though now sparsely settled is capable of [illegible] a large population and the place where [illegible] crosses the stream was [illegible] the natural site for a thriving country town. The Association owns at this point [illegible] The day the railroad is completed between the Sound and the River this [illegible] will be worth as much as all the lands of the Association cost and if well managed can be made to realize for the benefit of the Stockholders far more than their whole investment.

The following resolution will be offered for your consideration:

Resolved, That the President and Directors be authorized to give not exceeding one fourth of the Association lands on the Newaukum river to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company for the establishment of a depot at that point.

[illegible] The reception of the new [illegible] Company [illegible] yesterday. [illegible] The Committee of the Company [illegible] streets to the new engine house. The company's members had provided [illegible] Mr. Henley [illegible] Mr. D. C. Ireland [illegible] Chief Engineer Holman then entertained the party with a few remarks relative to the efficiency [illegible] of the Department. He was followed by Mr. A. J. Hallock, a fireman of thirteen years' standing, who was present now on this occasion as one of the City Fathers. He was proud to see this company, the youngest in the Department, turn out on this occasion with the handsomest apparatus and the possession of the handsomest building, and hoped to see the time soon when every company in the Department shall be housed in a brick building. U. S. Marshal T. G. Young followed Mr. Hallock. Mr. Young was a former Chief of the Department, and has an excellent standing in his company at the time. His remarks were closed with three cheers for the Department and music. Mr. W. H. Wood of Company No. 1, ex-Chief Engineer, then addressed his brother firemen congratulating the Department upon its prosperous condition, concluding by proposing three cheers for Company No. 4, which were given with a hearty good will. Mr. H. [illegible] from the Council was next called for and he responded in a very suitable speech suitable to the day. He was followed by Mr. Wm. H. Wetsell of Company No. 4. After Mr. Wetsell's remarks the procession again formed and the several companies marched back to their homes. Protection men have rarely cause for celebrating this event. Their house, apparatus and all are equal to those of almost any volunteer company in the United States we presume. Their Committee, Messrs. C. E. Marye, David Monastes, Henry Evering and R. Hendrie, who have had charge of furnishing the house have exercised the very best kind of taste and judgment and the house and furnishings are splendidly made. The ceremony of taking possession closed with an elegant party last evening.

SHIPPING WHEAT IN BULK.—We are glad to learn that a few of the leading citizens of Oregon have turned their attention to the subject of shipping grain from this State in bulk. Perhaps an elevator will be erected for this purpose during next year. The experiment has not yet been fully made. An idea prevails that as vessels going hence to New York or to Europe pass twice through the tropics grain in bulk would become heated and spoil. The elevator built two years ago at Vallejo has never yet loaded a vessel for this reason and has only been used to facilitate the loading with grain sacks. But Mr. Friedlander, the Grain King of the Coast, has purchased it, and we understand that he intends to test, at his own expense the feasibility of shipping in bulk to Europe. The experiment which he shall make will be looked forward to with interest by every farmer on the coast. The sacks necessary for shipping the cargoes of the Loretta and Alpha from this port lately would alone be a fair profit upon the wheat so exported, and it is a serious burden to the farmer who when the proper method of [illegible] is applied are the ones compelled to suffer most from the expense of sacking. It is a total loss. With the introduction of elevators will come the manner of dealing in grain in the Eastern States. There the railroad companies loan sacks to farmers to transport their wheat crops to the place of milling or exportation. If the grain is for export it is loaded in bulk from elevators into a series of bins fitted in the hull of the ship and it is said that the lumber of which the bins are made sells in a foreign market at a profit upon the entire cost of the bins in the first place. It seems that the bins in a ship loading in bulk can be arranged in a manner to avoid all possibility of losses and we are of those who believe that the experiments about to be made in the bulk mode of shipping grain will prove the success of the plan.

ADAMS EXPRESS COMPANY.—In the advertised list of letters remaining uncalled for at the Portland Postoffice, is one addressed to "Adams Express Company." Here is a chance for some [illegible] to take his chances of obtaining his dues [illegible] It may contain a check or certificate of deposit or money returned by some conscience smitten smuggler—who knows. Many have made a [illegible] good luck yesterday and this letter might be the means of relieving want, if we were told that Adams & Co. when they suspended were largely indebted to parties who could illy afford to lose so much.

PAINFUL CASE.—A case occurred yesterday at the landing of the Oriflamme which is another demand for a hospital in this city. For some place at least where a man can be taken and properly provided for in the event of sickness or accident, when such person is a stranger and has no home of his own to go to. A Mr. Perry from Wisconsin was a passenger in the steerage. All the way up from San Francisco he was [illegible] and on landing was not able to stand. He lay down on the wharf among the baggage, surrounded by men, women, hacks, drays, coaches, etc., etc., actually unable to [illegible] appeals to the bystanders from one who sought to erect himself in the matter [illegible] effect in affording the unfortunate man [illegible] Policeman Allen was not [illegible] was ready and willing to do all that lay in his power to relieve the case, but he had no authority to act. Mayor Goldsmith was applied to, but he had no authority to act in an official capacity. He could assist in a private manner [illegible] Judge Hamilton was found and [illegible] of his authority Mr. Allen was permitted to take Mr. Perry to the County Hospital. [illegible] the city of Portland can devise some better way than this to take care of unfortunate persons who come among us we can [illegible] very large [illegible] about the excellence of our sanitary arrangements.

BIG CITY.—Portland was never so large as it was yesterday. The streets wore an appearance of the crowded avenues of Washington City on Inauguration day. The bulletin boards at the [illegible] were crowded all day with the eager to hear the news of the Mercantile Library Lottery drawing. It was announced that [illegible] Tom [illegible] won a handsome prize, that Eli Morrell holds the ticket which takes the $[illegible] prize and several small lots were scattered about the city. Up to six o'clock last evening 192 prizes had been drawn varying from [illegible] to [illegible] by telegraph [illegible] the library [illegible] a steamer came in [illegible] a steamer left [illegible]

WHEAT IN BULK.—We are glad to of the leading citizens of Oregon attention to the subject of shipping from this State in bulk. STEAMSHIP ORIFLAMME.—The North Pacific Transportation Company's steamship Oriflamme, Capt. William Metzger, reached this port at noon yesterday.

MEMORANDA.

The Oriflamme left San Francisco October 27th, at 11.30 A. M., crossed the Bar Oct. 30th, at 8.30 A. M. and arrived at Portland at 1 o'clock A. M., Oct. 31st.

PASSENGERS:

Hon. L. Sawyer, Chas. English, G. S. Philbrick, A. A. Rahton, C. S. Kim, Alfred Baker, A. Austin, John West, H. W. Lake and family, Wm. Goodwin and wife, G. Keen, A. L. Spencer, C. A. Cole, A. H. Stephens, A. A. Cross, wife and mother, Mrs. N. Thompson, J. C. Powers, Mrs. Capt. Noyes and sister, Miss H. Piper, Mrs. Butterfield and two children, Miss A. Skitson, Mrs. M. A. Edmonds and two children, E. F. Phelps, wife and sister, Major A. A. Bend and daughter, C. L. Wilson, W. H. George, Mrs. Neswells and two children, W. G. Vanhorn, R. Ward, R. H. Lumson, Capt. T. B. Vanhorn, wife and daughter, G. P. Rummelin and family, H. O. Purrington, J. O. Drake and wife, G. W. Foster (Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger) and ninety-two others.

SOME ONIONS.—We have been astonished often at the reports of the productiveness of Oregon soil. For instance: In the show window at Russell & Ferry's office, may be seen specimens of onions raised on the farm of Mr. W. P. Watson, at Beaverton, seven miles west of this city. They are the finest onions we have ever seen. Mr. Watson raised these on ground that had been cleared this year. The ground had never been plowed—the crop just harrowed in. The yield was 900 bushels to an acre. Land out there has been selling at from $3 to $5 per acre. This one crop of onions, at current prices, brings $900 per acre.

STORY OF JOE. MEEK.—The Chicago Republican revives some of the old stories told of Joe. Meek when he went to Washington as a Territorial messenger from Oregon, among them the following: His good looks and relationship to President Polk made him a great favorite with the ladies. While promenading one evening, a lady enquired whether he had ever been married. "Yes," Joe. said, "he had a wife and six children." "Oh, la!" continued his friend, "and isn't Mrs. Meek afraid of the Indians?" "Afraid of the Indians!" replied the frontiersman, "I reckon not; why, she's an Indian herself!"

THE BREAKWATER CASE.—The trial of the case of W. C. Johnson and J. L. Barlow vs. the P. T. Co., in the Circuit Court for Clackamas county, terminated yesterday in a judgement for the plaintiff. This was an action to eject defendant from possession of a tract of 17 acres of land at the Wallamet falls, on the east side of the river, on which a quarter portion of the timber wall, forming what is called the "basin improvements," is built. Notice of an appeal was given.

IN TOWN.—Col. I. R. Moores, land commissioner of the Oregon and California Railroad Company, Hon. Samuel E. May, ex Secretary of State, Gen. John F. Miller, and several other prominent gentlemen from the Capital, came down on the evening train. They report the small pox excitement at Salem as having evaporated. Secretary Chadwick, who was ill a few days ago, has recovered, and is attending to business.

BOY HURT.—A dray ran over a small boy on First street yesterday, and on receiving the reports we expected to have a death to announce as one of the results. The boy, however, was all right last night. Our reporter called to see him, and found him able to play a game of "seven up" with his father. He is a precocious youngster of nine years, and will not be run off the track by any one-horse concern like a dray.

THE WHEELBARROW MAN.—The man Friday, who crossed the plains in 1850 from Council Bluffs, Iowa, to Placerville, El Dorado county, has arrived in San Francisco with the identical wheelbarrow which he trundled before him on that long journey, and will deliver a course of lectures relating to his trip, for the benefit of some of the charitable institutions of that city.

BOY SHOOTING SCRAPE.—Nearly the whole population of Last Chance were brought up to the city yesterday to attend an investigation before a Justice concerning a recent shooting scrape between youths. The shooting was done by a son of Last Chance Miller, the boy shot at was a son of Mr. Quigley.

TREMENS ABOUT.—The delirium tremens is about. A stranger, a man apparently 30 years of age, was found dead at Aurora on Sunday, having died of this dread contagion. Several persons in this city have been exposed, and carbolic acid won't do 'em any good if it takes a good strong hold on them.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS.—Messrs. Wm. P. Burke, A. B. Hallock, and J. H. Hayden, Commissioners appointed under the late law to regulate this city so far as relates to the Police Department, will hold their first session to-day. They will make a few appointments.

COSTLY DUCKS.—A newly married man complains of the high price of "ducks." He said his wife recently paid for three of them—a duck of a bonnet, a duck of a dress, and a duck of a shawl. He says such "dealings in poultry" will ruin him.

FOUND AT LAST.—A census-taker in a rural district of Missouri reports two pairs of twins born in the last three years to a happy couple named Woodbine. Thus is at last found Mr. Fisk's favorite place "where the Woodbine twineth."

INCENDIARY FIRES.—Five incendiary fires have occurred at Salem within three weeks past. The city seems to be infested with a youthful banditti such as were running at large in this city so numerously, only a few months ago.

CROSS-EYED.—It is feared that sundry men will become cross-eyed, looking after their sundry prizes in the lottery reports, which are all figures that they could not see.

LADIES SOCIETY.—The Ladies' Relief Society will meet in the basement of the Presbyterian church to-day at 2:30 o'clock, P. M.

GOVERNORS PRESENT.—We learn that two-thirds of the Oregon Governors were in town last night.

Don't "paste this in your hat," where you will never see it, and it can't "get through your wool" except by a trepanning operation, but stick it on the fly-leaf of your prayer-book, where it will surely fall under your eye daily, at your morning devotions. It is a scrap of proverbial philosophy from Micawber: "Annual income, twenty pounds; expenditure nineteen, eleven and six; result—happiness. Annual income, twenty pounds; annual expenditure, twenty pounds, ought and six; result—misery. The blossom is blighted, the leaf is withered, the god of day goes down upon the dreary scene, and, in short, you are forever floored."

The Philadelphia Press very properly says that the custom-house officer at Savannah who lowered the United States flag on hearing of the death of Robert E. Lee is evidently ripe for removal. General Lee for four years did his best to dishonor and disgrace this flag, and never apologized for so doing. To have lowered it as a mark of respect to his memory, would have been simply idiotic. The inference is very fair that the custom-house official who is so poor a custodian of his country's flag is likely just as poor a keeper of its coin.

WHAT ARE YOUR SYMPTOMS?—Mrs. Selina Horton, residing at , was, a few weeks ago, a confirmed hypochondriac. One day she was bewailing her miserable condition to a lady friend in Brooklyn. "What are your symptoms?" asked the lady. "Oh, I am sick all over," was the reply; "never free from headache and pains in the back, very weak, and so low-spirited that the least thing makes me cry." "Just my own case a year ago, when I commenced using PLANTATION BITTERS," said Mrs. H. "Well," inquired her friend. "Well, they cured me of every distressing symptom in two weeks, and I feel better than I ever did in my life." The lady did so and with the same happy result.

Bear it in Mind

When disease has undermined the health and the physical system has become prostrated, a stimulant that will not only strengthen but remove the cause, should be immediately resorted to. Mental distress is also a fruitful source of the breaking down of the constitution, and the ravages of this enemy to health are truly alarming. For all such maladies Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have been found unsurpassed. By acting directly upon the digestive organs, they remove the heavy, disagreeable feeling after eating, so often complained of by persons of a delicate temperament. As soon as digestion is restored, the patient finds his strength increasing, and his general health improved.

Thousands of persons certify that it may be relied on in all cases of weakness or nervous debility attendant upon sedentary habits. The generality of Bitters are so disagreeable to the taste that they are objectionable to a weak stomach. This is not the case with Hostetter's Bitters, which will be found mild and extremely pleasant. Balsamic plants, barks and roots contribute their restorative juices to render it soothing and strengthening. Its basis is the only pure stimulant which has ever been produced, containing no fusil oil, or any other deleterious element. The most careful and skillful chemists have analyzed the Bitters, and pronounce them harmless. This is a valuable testimony; but the testimony of the hundreds of thousands who have experienced the preventive and and curative effects of the GREAT VEGETABLE TONIC AND ALTERATIVE of modern times is still more conclusive. In Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Nervous Complaints, Chronic Complaints and general debility, it is as nearly infallible as anything in this fallible world can be.

French Military Demoralization

[illegible] the French soldier has in consequence of [illegible] lost his military virtues his discipline is weak his ambition is blunt I am assured that when M Mahon marched through this place Rheims the French soldiers [illegible] carrying the [illegible] throw them away and sighed and sneered in their [illegible] I have everywhere found proofs of the [illegible] of which the French soldier [illegible] guilty in their own [illegible] I have met towns people who openly declared that they would rather have twenty Prussians as enemies than five French [illegible] defenders. How careless the French army can be in presence of the enemy was seen at Beaumont where our men surprised a large French encampment in [illegible] while the meals were being cooked. They had not even outposts. What the French soldier is in camp he is on the march. He cannot march [illegible] very little progress [illegible] day. Marches of five miles for three or four consecutive days such as our men have so often made in this campaign would have garnished the [illegible] with the whole French army. The French [illegible] all the more exacting for this. He [illegible] privations unwillingly, grumbles when they are put upon him and uses for [illegible] against his own countrymen in order to obtain what he requires. The patience and endurance which our soldiers showed in this war when it was necessary to do without bread and even water would be incomprehensible to the Frenchman. It is true, and I cannot sufficiently accentuate this that the French have fought bravely—and who would not fight with such a weapon as the chassepot. Where our artillery played upon them vigorously they [illegible] away from [illegible] their officers had no power over them. What we have suffered from [illegible] knows it is much was brought upon us by their fearful weapon which was [illegible] death itself [illegible] which smote upon [illegible] so like [illegible] a happy chance only preserved [illegible] from wounds or death

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering untold misery as a consequence of the effects of secret indulgence [illegible] virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces, their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the comforts and happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible all destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who can cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make a strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of affecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of his complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have med[illegible] promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are thus: the shoemakers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patient's letters etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure

HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

EAST PORTLAND, OREGON

IS NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS to their Stock

Application for ONE HUNDRED SHARES [illegible] before the books were opened, and a large number of Shares have been taken

The following extracts from the Oregonian [illegible] will convey a good idea of the plan and workings of the Association the location of the land, etc., etc.

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

The association of whose organization we gave an account a few days since, is now ready to dispose of shares. As it is with one exception (the Portland Homestead Association,) the pioneer organization of that kind in this city, it may be well enough to state what are [illegible] the manner in which it is proposed to conduct its operations. The purposes of these [illegible] Associations are not at all speculative in the ordinary sense of the word. They [illegible] for the profits of their investment upon the natural advance in the value of their lands, consequent upon the co-operation of many [illegible] —shareholders—and the advance on values of all surrounding lands by reason of the [illegible] population and demand for room outside of, but still near, the city. The Riverside [illegible] Association has a fraction over one hundred and twenty acres of land situated just south of Brooklyn on the east side of the river, the most boundary line being about one [illegible] from the ferry landing at East Portland. The land is in one strip along the Willamette river, half a mile in length, and another strip along the Oregon and California railroad, half a mile in length, the two strips being connected near the middle by two rows of blocks (with a street between them) the whole forming a figure not unlike the letter H. It is divided into 74 blocks, 200 feet square (with streets running at right angles) and 30 fractional lots along the river front. The shares number 600 worth $50 per share. It will be seen that a share thus represents nearly a lot with an undivided interest in the 30 fractional lots. The fractional shares are to be sold off at the proper time for the benefit of the Association, [illegible] coming in for the proceeds in proportion to the number of shares held. When all the shares are taken and the Association [illegible] to do it, the choice of lots and blocks will be put up at auction to the highest bidder the proceeds of such sales, after [illegible] the original price of shares or lots, to be divided equally among the whole [illegible] Thus if a person wants a [illegible] and is willing to pay $100 [illegible] premium (more or less as the case may be) he pays it and takes the lot or block as his individual [illegible] premium being divided among the [illegible] of shareholders. It will be seen [illegible] everything is co-operative, and all [illegible] No man can make a dollar [illegible] but also making a dollar for [illegible] shareholder. There is no [illegible] the property by some shareholders [illegible] far below the first actual cost [illegible] liable to happen in the case of this [illegible] tract of land must be [illegible] but considering the steady advance on real estate in this city and neighborhood and at East Portland and [illegible] last year or two, it [illegible] values to go back.

In the Riverside Association all proper [illegible] seem to have been taken to guard against monopolies of shares. No person is allowed to buy more than [illegible] three blocks, or [illegible] the operations of the [illegible] restricted in the same [illegible] shares may pay down $50 per share, which will exempt them from all assessments, or they may pay $15 quarterly with an [illegible] share, payable with the first installment, being liable in this latter case to another (and only other) assessment of $5 per share. Upon the payment of the shares in full [illegible] as above, the holder is [illegible] and his proportion of all the profits [illegible] all sources. No [illegible] any pay for services [illegible] gets $25 per month, so it will be [illegible] expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying along the river is a high plateau nearly level, about [illegible] above the water. There is not a [illegible] row of blocks but commands a splendid view of Portland and the river for miles up and down the stream. That part of the land lying [illegible] railroad is, every foot of it, of the richest [illegible] soil and adapted to gardening purposes. A beautiful little stream of pure water runs through almost the entire length of this strip of the tract, affording the means of irrigation, and power sufficient to supply pure water to every part of the whole tract. There is not a waste lot or fraction of a lot in the entire tract. Under all these advantages, it would seem impossible that there should be any chance of loss to shareholders. Within a year each shareholder, if he chooses, may get a perfect title to as many lots as his shares may represent or he may continue his interest undivided with the Association while the organization may exist —Oregonian.

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

We have been led to make these remarks [illegible] fact that the subject of making [illegible] outskirts of this city and East Portland [illegible] discussed here among all [illegible] Riverside [illegible] just south of East Portland [illegible] been established. The site selected [illegible] a little over a mile south of the ferry landing. It is shaped like the letter H one half of which, a half mile in length [illegible] on the river.

From this portion of the [illegible] but a trifle above the other points of the H, but a [illegible] forty or fifty feet above the river, can be had a [illegible] view of Portland, East Portland, the shipping and the Willamette river for several miles. The land [illegible] partly covered with light fir timber [illegible] tract of land just wide enough for two rows of blocks, with an avenue between them occupies the east part of the H (which has already been [illegible]) [illegible] east. This last tract of land lies in a beautiful valley which is now under a high state of cultivation. Through its whole length runs a trout brook, the water [illegible] as crystal. With a hydraulic ram [illegible] proposes to have water conveyed through [illegible] of the homestead.—Daily Bulletin.
